1. The first part of the report is a general description of the project and its objectives. This section provides a brief overview of the work that has been done and the results that have been obtained.

2. The second part of the report is a detailed description of the methods used in the study. This section provides a thorough explanation of the procedures that were followed and the equipment that was used.

3. The third part of the report is a discussion of the results of the study. This section provides a detailed analysis of the data that was collected and a comparison of the results with those of previous studies.

4. The fourth part of the report is a conclusion and a list of references. The conclusion summarizes the main findings of the study and provides a brief statement of the author's conclusions. The references list the sources of information that were used in the study.

5. The fifth part of the report is an appendix containing additional information that is relevant to the study. This section includes a list of the equipment used, a list of the data collected, and a list of the calculations that were performed.

A schematic diagram of a horizontal beam of length L . A coordinate system (x, y) is shown at the left end, with x pointing right and y pointing up. A vertical line segment of length h is shown at the right end, representing a support or boundary. The beam is labeled with L and h .
